101ST ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Indian Ridge Rebekah Lodge Celebrate with Banquet and Appropriate Exercises. Paper on Odd Fellowship One of Features

The 101st anniversary of Odd Fellowship was fittingly observed by Indian Ridge Rebekah Lodge, Friday night, in Odd Fellows' Hall. A bountiful banquet was served in the G. A. R. hall at seven o'clock and 100 covers were laid. Thomas E. Rhodes catered and served the following menu: cold meats, hot mashed potatoes, chicken pie, peas, rolls, coffee and cake and ice cream.

After the banquet the gathering adjourned to Odd Fellows' Hall and Mrs. Charles S. Buchanan, P. N. G., presided at the entertainment.

An address of welcome was given by N. G. Mrs. Ira Buxton and a very interesting sketch of Odd Fellowship from the time of Adam, was given by Frank L. Brigham.

He spoke as follows:

"For many years it has been a question as to who or what was the first in the establishment of a social, fraternal or beneficiary organization in the world.

"Enthusiastic writers thought they could find traces of fraternal and secret organizations in the patriarchal period

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED

Opening Day of Shawheen Village New Hall Brings Out Many "Kiddies" as Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wood

The hall in the new community building in Shawheen village was used for the first time on last Saturday afternoon when nearly three hundred children of Shawheen Village and West Parish were entertained at a May party given by Mr. and Mrs. William M. Wood.

The fact that it was a rainy afternoon did not keep anyone away for conveyance by auto truck was provided for all the guests.

A Punch and Judy show from Boston delighted the children. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were arranged by Mrs. Cornelius A. Wood and Miss Rosalind Wood. Games arranged by Miss Genevieve McNally, principal of the Richardson School, were played until five o'clock. The

THE MOST frequent cause of fire from heating apparatus is defective flues. Cracks in chimneys and loose joints or rust holes in smoke-pipes are examples of such defects. These are responsible for practically all fires which originate in walls or in partitions around stove-pipes. Chimneys frequently become unsafe because of settling, disintegrating of mortar, or a severe wind storm may cause cracks to develop. All chimneys should be thoroughly inspected and cleaned at least once a year.

ANNUAL LADIES' NIGHT

Closing Night of the Season of Free Church Men's Club Attended by Large Gathering. Entertainment Follows Supper

A supper followed by addresses and a musical program marked the observance of Ladies' Night by the Free Church Men's Club. There was a large attendance of members and their friends who enjoyed a social hour until supper was served in the dining room at seven o'clock by caterer Rhodes. Grace was said by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock, after which the following menu was served: roast sirloin of beef, cold ham, mashed potato, chicken pie, green peas, rolls, coffee, ice cream and fancy cookies.

The after-dinner exercises were held in the parish house with Herbert W. Ford, president, in charge. An excellent program was given including a selection by a mixed quartet, reading and solos by Miss Mabel Marshall and solos by Miss Mary Caldwell, all of whom received encores. Miss Pauline Sanderson was accompanist for Miss Past Masters' night was observed Monday night in Masonic hall by St. Matthews Lodge, A. F. and A. M. and the third degree was exemplified. There was a large gathering of brethren including visitors from many lodges throughout the district.

The lodge convened at six o'clock and the degree was worked by the following past masters:

Wor. Bro. Thomas David, master; Wor. Bro. William A. Allen, senior warden; Wor. Bro. Nesbit G. Gleason, junior warden; Wor. Bro. George W. Chandler, treasurer; Wor. Bro. James Anderson, secretary; Wor. Bro. Albert S. Manning, chaplain; Wor. Bro. Walter H. Thompson, marshal; Wor. Bro. Henry A. Bodwell, senior deacon; Wor. Bro. Charles N. Marland, junior deacon; Wor. Bro. George M. R. Holmes, senior steward; Wor. Bro. Gordon R. Cannon, junior steward; Wor. Bro. Malcolm B. McTernan, inside sentinel.

Music for the work was furnished by the Orpheus Quartet of Lawrence. At the conclusion of the degree, Judge George H. Poor of Boston, a former past master of the lodge and District Deputy Grand Master, W. H. Buswell of Methuen spoke and impressed on the brethren the great power Masonry is in this country at the present time in

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

of Abraham, in the close fellowship among the soldiers of Caesar. I go even earlier than that, and say even Adam was an Odd Fellow, and like all the others, from his time to the present, could not continue his lodge without the organization and assistance of the auxiliary order of which Eve was the first member.

"We who live in the practice of such great truths as we select from God's word upon which to found our organization, cannot see why there should be any question as to priority, for we certainly have a right to go back to the period of Jonathan and David, from whom we can get the greatest lesson of friendship.

"We later find accounts of Odd Fellows as a social and helpful society among mechanics and tradesmen back in 1715, when an 'Odd Fellow's lodge was a place where pleasant and recreative evenings were spent."

"When a brother was out of employment, he was given a card and funds to carry him to the next lodge location, where he was cared for until he needed no other assistance.

"In the early times there was little or no ritual, and but little formality, but time spent in good fellowship. Pipes were filled and songs were sung.

"When friendship, love and truth abound among a band of brothers:
The cup of joy goes evenly round;
Each shares the bliss of others;
Then let us be social, be generous and kind;
Let each take his glass and be mellow;
Then join heart and hand, leave dissensions behind,
And each prove a hearty Odd Fellow."

"This form of the institution lasted for many years until it shaped itself into a real lodge such as we find in the formation of the Manchester Unity in England 1809. This order developed very rapidly in numbers and wealth throughout the British Empire. Later it found its influence spreading to the American continent.

"The Independent Order of Odd Fellows had a very humble origin in the city of Baltimore, Md., in April, 1819.

"In the issue of the Baltimore American of March 27th of that year, the following advertisement appeared:

"A few members of the society of Odd Fellows will be glad to meet their brethren for the purpose of forming a lodge on Friday evening, April 2, at the Seven Stars, Second street, at the hour of 7 p.m."

"As the result of this, five men who had been members of the order in England gathered, and under the enthusiasm of our beloved Thomas Widley the first Odd Fellows' lodge of America was suggested and later in the month on April 26th in the same upper room of the 'Seven Star Tavern' a lodge was instituted and named Washington Lodge No. 1 in honor of the first great American president.

"From the founding of the I. O. O. F. in Baltimore of that year until the Civil War, it had a steady growth, but during the war there was a net loss of about 10,000 members.

"From the close of the war to the present time the order has had a most remarkable growth, to my knowledge its membership passing by many thousand the two million mark.

"Odd Fellowship extends to all the States of the American Union, Alaska,

British North America and many of the foreign lands and islands of the sea and with its rapid progress will in years to come establish itself throughout the civilized globe.

"One of the memorable events transpired during the decade 1850-1859, when the 'Female Degree' so called at that time, was adopted, being to us the ritual of the Rebekahs, written by Schuyler Colfax (later vice-president of the United States) and adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1851.

"Thus woman also was given a mission in Odd Fellowship. A mission we must concede that never could be performed by men alone. Her mission like ours, is to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead, and educate the orphan, and aid materially in the establishment of homes where the veterans of the order and their families may find rest and shelter when age or adverse fortunes overtake them in the evening of life.

"Odd Fellowship has a foothold and is telling to the world, in deeds of simple charity, the glory of friendship, love and truth.

"Let those of us who bear the proud title of an Odd Fellow ever remember we are members of an organization whose great and glorious work shines out like a beacon light to those who find the pathway of life rugged and forlorn. ever remember that Odd Fellowship is specially commended above all other merely human institutions by its clear and positive teachings of the Divine paternity and human fraternity, the fatherhood of good and the brotherhood of man."

A splendid entertainment, consisting of vocal selections, readings and solo dances was given by well-known talent, which was thoroughly enjoyed, particularly the singing by the male quartet, Henry Fairweather, Jack Hill, Edward Hill and Everett Collins, who also rendered solos.

Up to Date if Nothing Else

Fortune had dawned for him at last; he was rich. With tears of joy in his eyes he rushed to the wife of his bosom and told her the news.

"We will move to a better house," he finished; "you, my dear, will be able to have some decent clothes at last."

"I'll do nothing of the sort!" retorted the lady sharply. "I'll get the same kind that other women are wearing!"

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, D. C.—The folks here have not yet stopped talking of the message to Oregon by President Wilson. It takes rank with his famous note of pre-election day during the war when he asked his countrymen to support his party at the forthcoming election. The story of what happened is history and while predictions are not always safe there is only one prediction made in consequence. The politicians of all parties regard the message as a most grave political error though there are those who will take advantage of all the politics that there are in it and go the limit at that. Strange as it may seem, the Republicans at about the same time as the message was being sent to Oregon were selecting Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as the man to sound the keynote speech at the Chicago convention less than a month away.

Now President Wilson has his personal views as to the Senator from Massachusetts, and likewise the Senator. Senator Lodge was given one of the best endorsements of his long career at the primaries a few weeks ago and his stand for Americanism in the Senate has made new friends for him all over the country. Even his Democratic friends in the Senate admit that this is so and the speech soon to be delivered will be the effort of the career. He will talk to his countrymen as he has talked to them before upon the issue of Americanism as being paramount to the issues of any day and any period of the country's history. And there will be no doubt at all that this speech in Chicago will be read by the man in the White House without reservations at all.

The convention has a big field to pick from. Many States have favorite sons all worthy of support. The issue of the League of Nations that Mr. Wilson has thrust into the arena at this time is perhaps the foremost issue before the country and the man who has held the forces for Americanism for many weeks past is Senator Lodge of Massachusetts. His speech will be a great one and in case of a very decided divided opinion as to the man to name for President the name of Senator Lodge must not be forgotten. He may be a factor of great possibilities at Chicago. Time alone will develop this theory and issue.

It may be news to a great many that the bonus issue that was so sure to pass into law a few weeks ago has struck such snags that the measure may not be passed at this session if at all.

Chairman Forney of the Ways and Means Committee of the House says that the measure will be brought to a successful end, but there are other members of that committee as well as of the House, who today are taking issue with the chairman of ways and means. The country has heard from during the past few weeks as never before upon any single measure and it is all about the expenditure of money and not a few soldiers of the World War have told members of the Congress that their patriotism cannot be bought, like iron crosses for instance. Yet there are many men who are thoroughly patriotic in their efforts to pass the bonus bill as the soldiers want it. No one can deny that at this time the country is in sore straits for money and the taxes are going on almost everything in sight. With all the riches of the land there must be a limit to Government expenditures. The next fiscal year beginning July first, will find an enormous deficit due to the war and taxes must be increased to meet this and the expenses of the year to come.

The folks at home are asking their representatives here to consider well the additional taxation that the bonus will consume and it is a hard problem to solve at this time. Today there are those who predict the measure will remain in committee until a more favorable time. The soldier is a citizen and yet there are citizens who pay taxes and are not and have not been soldiers in recent years. The cry bonus bonds, sounds all to many ears here now in Washington.

The Department of Justice asked the Congress for $2,500,000 for the coming fiscal year for the detection and prosecution of crime. Later, when the attorney general Hon. Mitchell Palmer has dropped the X now, came before the House committee he withdrew a million and said he would be willing to accept $2,500,000 but the committee reported in the bill, $2,000,000. An effort was made on the floor of the house this week to give the Department the half million that was stricken out, but the effort failed completely and caused no end of fireworks in passing. Chairman Good of the Committee on Appropriations said that the sum appropriated for $2,000,000 was greater than ever before appropriated for such work and supplemented his remarks with a statement that was applauded as generously as anything ever said in the House. Said Mr. Good: "My position is this—that it is a useless waste of money to appropriate money by millions for the Department of Justice to make arrests, if nothing is to come of the arrest except to release the person arrested. Gentlemen say that some of this was appropriated for the arrest of profiteers. I want the profiteer sent to jail, and so we reported every penny the Attorney General asked for in the deficiency bill. Since then, we have seen the commodities and necessities of life, mount in price, with all the laws necessary to prevent profiteering on the statute books, all the laws that existed at the time it made the estimate—we have seen sugar go from ten cents a pound to thirty cents a pound, and so far as I know, nobody has gone to jail. I do not know whether they have been arrested or not." So there is no question as to laws sufficient for the profiteers, but the fact remains that prices are going up and up and the Department of Justice asks for more money to fight what? The question is yet to be answered. Senator Capper a few days ago, gave vent to a few men who have made money out of the high costs, and so this week he came to the front again and cited a baker here in Washington, Corby by name, who made some profits while the bakers this week said that it was necessary to advance the price of bread two cents a loaf. Think of these figures for a minute: Mr. Capper read into the record that Baker Corby made net profits in 1918 at one of his bakeries—he has two large bakeries—of $291,050, after allowing himself a salary of $25,000. Another bakery gave him profits of $19,000 and a salary of $3,000. In 1911 the year before the war, this baker made profits of $14,063; in 1915, $59,291; in 1916, $87,370; and in 1917, $112,292 while in 1912 the profits were $291,050. Oh, to be a baker in the City of Washington!

Representative William R. Green of Iowa proposes a tax on corporations issuing stock dividends at the rate of 15 per cent of the face value of dividends so issued. He says that he feels sure that there is no question as to the constitutionality of his proposal which is to place a tax on the corporations if they issue such dividends. Mr. Green intends to press his measure at the earliest opportunity time.

Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels this week issued a statement to the press in connection with the Senate hearings on matters relating to the Navy Department and the war. It contained ninety pages. And they do tell us of a paper shortage and to be careful. Better send for a copy for perhaps all of the papers did not use the statement entire and the supply may have been so large as to have provided for the press generally.

Punchard 9—Johnson 4

Punchard won from Johnson High Tuesday afternoon on the local playground. Maslen of Johnson High pitched steady ball but was hit hard and Punchard took advantage of the visitor's misplays to add to their score.

Johnson started to pitch for Punchard, but after three innings was relieved by Dimlich who held the visitors scoreless for the rest of the game. Partridge caught a splendid game and only one Johnson runner stole. Dalton and Clinton led with the stick, the former getting a brace of two baggers.

children sang "Smiles" and "Till We Meet Again" and as a grand finale, "The Star-Spangled Banner." With the happy children gathered around their happier host in the middle of the hall, they voiced their appreciation of all he and Mrs. Wood had done for them by singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mr. Wood took occasion before his departure to thank the children for the May baskets which were hung on the door of his home on May Day.

Memorial Trees for Soldiers of World War

The "Portland Argus" tells of the dedication of fifty-two kinden trees at Payson Park as a memorial of the fifty-two Portland soldiers who died in the German War. A full list of names was printed. The local American Legion Post president, relatives and friends were present. Mayor, chaplain and other officials made speeches. Music from the Legion band and a male quartette and the singing of a dedicatory hymn by the large audience who were duly impressed by this solemn service. Why not do the same here and while the time goes on, before we can erect something more substantial, doubtless delayed by our heavy war debt, these Memorial trees will grow on and add to the beauty of our present Park? Andover has a wide fame for its trees and there is plenty of room for the few we still need. Let's do it right away! This was on a weekday. Decoration day is so crowded usually, that we could take a nearby Sunday for this religious ceremony, when all who labor can be free. I do not know why lindens were chosen; some tree anyway, that is not subject to pests could be taken and all alike in a famous group. They could be numbered and a single tablet arranged that gave more than the mere name perhaps.

NEW ENGLAND IS SPENDING MILLIONS FOR LUXURIES

Survey of Massachusetts City Reveals Astonishing Facts

Billions for tobacco; billions for automobiles; and just over five cents a head for religious education! That's how we Americans are spending our money every year.

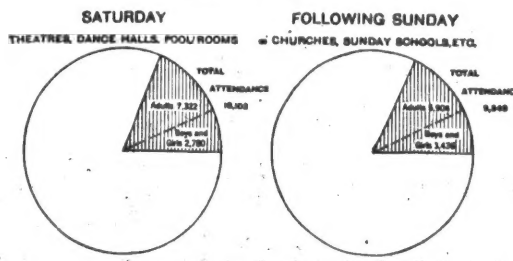

The country that 150 years ago pledged through James Otis "millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute" is today burning and racing away those millions and trying to buy its soul's salvation with the price of a lead pencil.

These figures don't lie. They are not the inventions of calamity howlers. They are the sum totals of carefully compiled statistics just made public by the Interchurch World Movement.

As many are unfamiliar with this "movement," which is just beginning to gather the impetus that is the inhabitants were members of the Protestant churches; in 1918, when the population had grown to 51,000, 13 per cent of the people were members of Protestant churches. In other words, in not quite thirty years the Protestant church membership was raised by just a fraction more than one per cent, while in the same period the population of the city more than quadrupled. Furthermore, statistics show that in the last 8 years the number of new members has fallen off considerably. Of course it must not be forgotten that every third person in Malden is foreign born; every second foreign-born man comes from a non-English-speaking country, every sixth foreign-born resident cannot read or write English; every 20th resident of Malden over 10 years going to prove an Archimedian lever to raise the religious standard of all nations to the proper height, its basic principles may be explained here.

The Interchurch World Movement came into being a year ago when 135 members of the Foreign Missions Board of the Presbyterian Church, South, met in New York city and boldly declared that the time had come for churches of all denominations to get together and put themselves on an efficiency basis.

The challenge was taken up by practically all the churches in America and under the impressive title already mentioned they have set of age, no matter where born, cannot read or write English. Sounds like a report on a backwoods settlement, doesn't it?

The figures on Malden Sunday School attendance are significantly symbols of an ailing public conscience. Out of 1420 Sunday School children, 5.1 per cent attended 97 per cent of the time; 6.9 per cent attended 88 per cent of the time; 10.2 per cent attended 77 per cent of the time; and 12.6 per cent attended 60 per cent of the time. The other 65.2 per cent of the children attended less than 50 per cent of the time. In other words, over half the children supposedly themselves the task of discovering grouping the facts concerning the world's mental and spiritual needs; of building a program based on these needs, and of rounding up workers and money to carry it through.

In order to be fair to every American, the Movement is making its research in all parts of the country, through workers on the ground. It is of interest to us in New England, therefore, to learn the results of the "survey" of a representative New England town, with as good a showing as any other town in America.

The first survey to be completed by the Movement is that of Malden, Mr. It is not in any sense an "expose" of that town's religious and civic progress or lack of it; it simply happened that there was more or less "machinery" at hand there, through the cooperation of the local Council of Religious Education, for beginning the nation-wide probe in Malden.

going to Sunday School missed a half year's attendance and instruction.

The survey spared the Sunday School teachers no more than it spared the parents and children. As a result, some startling facts came to light.

First of all, Malden children are being taught religion by other children their own ages. Think of it! Truly Malden evinces an unprecedented faith in the Biblical statement that wisdom is revealed only to "babes."

Out of 361 teachers in the Sunday Schools, 52 per cent were from 13 to 20 years of age; 22 per cent were from 21 to 30; 7 per cent were from 30 to 40; and 3 per cent were from 40 to 50.

"But think of the expense of maintaining a paid corps of college-bred teachers in the Sunday Schools," some argue. "In these days of high costs."

That's all right about the high

"Religion," says this remarkable report, "does not occupy a dominant place in the life of the 51,000 Malden citizens."

"The birth-rate is greater among the Jewish residents than among either Catholic or Protestant."

"There is a larger percentage of Russians than of any other foreign nationality."

"The Protestants of Malden are dying off."

This last startling fact is accounted for in two ways. First, the number of Protestant homes and Protestant children is larger than Catholic or Jewish, but the average number of children in them is smaller than is the case in either the Catholic or the Jewish homes. The second reason is that the Protestant churches of Malden have made practically no gains in membership among the newcomers to the city from year to year. The survey shows that in 1890, when the population was 11,725 only 11.9% of Deputy Buswell said that Masons were responsible for the constitution of the United States and it was a legacy handed down to see that it was preserved from all attacks. He complimented Wor. Thomas David on the remarkable manner in which he conferred the degrees. Bro. David was master of the lodge in 1897-99.

A banquet was served in the town hall to members and invited guests by Caterer Rhodes, the menu being as follows: grape fruit, roast sirloin of beef, hot mashed potatoes, creamed carrots, waldorf salad, rolls, coffee, ice cream and fancy cookies.

Musical selections were rendered during the banquet by the Adelphi orchestra. An enjoyable entertainment was presented, including a vocal solo by Bro. J. Everett Collins and character sketches in Irish, Hebrew and Italian by Bro. Jack Liden of Boston.

The affair was one of the most successful in years and was in charge of W. M. Walter H. Thompson and officers of the lodge.

A Deserved Rebuke

We doubt if there is a man in the country broader in his views on the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor than is Governor Coolidge. But when it came to the question of fooling the public by the kind of vote that the Legislature passed a few days ago favoring 2.75 beer, the Governor entirely ignored the question itself, and approached the manner in which the Legislature had viewed the question in a way of which he is a master. The sham and hypocrisy with which a legislative body all too often approaches a great public issue was never more soundly and deservedly rebuked than in the message which the Governor submitted. It was genuine, old-fashioned, Abe Lincoln philosophy which he handed out, again demonstrating that it is not easy for him to be fooled, nor is it easy for him to play politics when there is involved a question of sincerity of action and honesty of purpose.

Let us hope that the Massachusetts Legislature will see more than the problem of 2.75 beer as it analyzes the words the Governor used in telling them that they had not yet become superior to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Confirm Mr. McCall

It is difficult to understand the line of reasoning which may lead the Senatorial body in Washington to refuse to confirm former Governor McCall as a member of the Tariff Commission. His appointment is of course the kind of an appointment that the President delights in making. Wherever Mr. Wilson has ever seen an opportunity to stick a pin into the Republican party he has done it, and after the pin prick, if it has been possible for him to deposit a little gall and wormwood he has not refrained from doing that.

That the Governor no longer stands high with certain strong Republicans in Massachusetts and in the country seems to us to have nothing whatever to do with the issue at stake. The Governor has been a leading Congressman for many years, has held the high office of Governor of Massachusetts, and discharged his duties not always to please some people, and never to please all the people, but with such distinction and honor to himself and his constituents as to justify him in having a larger measure of praise than censure from the party to which he has given his allegiance the greater part of the time during these many years. It is entirely beside the question as to just what service he will render in his new position, but it might not be out of place to suggest that there is some question whether the President of the United States wants very much service rendered on the commission to which he has appointed Mr. McCall.

The thing for the Senate to do is to approve Mr. McCall because he has had the kind of training to fit him for the job, and to entirely ignore the petty reasoning which has led some Republicans to say that now is the time to punish Mr. McCall for not having always been regular. There is much more at stake than any of the personal bickerings in which so many small Republicans frequently like to indulge.

Is the Public Learning?

We have wondered for a long while, when the average public would fully appreciate just what rotten administration at Washington has accomplished.

Enjoying a Visit South

Miss Kate Adams Swift, who is in the South, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Darling at "Cedar Hall", Hampton, Va. During the recent festivities marking Commencement Week at Hampton Institute, Miss Swift attended many social affairs, notable among which was a luncheon given by Dr. Gregg at his mansion house, where among the guests, numbering fifty, was former President Taft. Miss Swift is a member of the John Adams Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, of Boston, and was among the patriotic women who attended the recent twenty-ninth annual Continental Congress of the D. A. R. in Washington. While in Washington she was the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. McKay of Columbia road.

Thrown From Wagon

Daniel Haggarty, employed by William M. Wood, narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday afternoon when he was thrown from his carriage on North Main street near the home of Dionese Micheli. Mr. Haggarty was driving toward town and his team was struck by an automobile going in the same direction. He was thrown out and against the meat wagon of J. P. Wakefield but fortunately escaped serious injury. The carriage was badly damaged.

The driver of the automobile sped on, but his registration number, Mass. 119, 155 was taken and the police have communicated with the highway commission in an effort to locate the machine.

for the people in the last seven years. Probably no one commodity could have been affected to bring the great mass of people as a whole to understand the situation, more effectively than sugar, and an analysis of the situation in connection with sugar, recently brought out by Senator Capper in Washington, ought to be pasted in the hat of every voter and nailed to the cupboard of every housewife, as a proper preparation of the public at large for the forthcoming Presidential election.

Let us quote a few things that Senator Capper has let the public understand. He shows that the administration "could have bought the Cuban sugar crop at six and one-half cents per pound for raw sugar." This would have given twelve-cent sugar to our consumers, and together with our domestic production, would have furnished supplies in excess of our demands. As the result of failure in this matter, we are participating in the world shortage of sugar due to decreased European production, and we are subject to unparalleled speculation and profiteering.

Further analyzing the situation, it is computed that "the increased price of sugar is equivalent to an increased tax on our people of $50.00 per annum per family, and the total cost on the 8,000,000,000 pounds of our annual consumption, as mounting up to more than $1,000,000,000 in excess of the cost for the previous year. That is a pretty heavy price which American families have to pay for this blunder of the administration—a blunder which was the more inexcusable, since the sugar equalization board twice called the President's attention to the opportunity for the purchase of the Cuban sugar crop, and implored him to act."

Yes, it is a heavy price and let us hope that the world knows who is responsible for it.

Editorial Cinders

The death of Rev. Clark Carter came with a fullness of years and service enjoyed by few men. For approximately fifty years, Mr. Carter has been a messenger of comfort and cheer in Lawrence and vicinity. Few men had larger opportunity to make unfortunates happy—and to touch the seamy side of life with help and comfort, and the inexhaustible fountain from which Mr. Carter drew, seemed to grow more generous in its giving all the time. And over did not share in this as Lawrence did, and yet there has always been a pride in the work that Mr. Carter has done in the neighboring city. His indeed has been a life-work, full and overflowing, and bearing rare and rich fruit.

The new store at Shawshien Village opens this week, and those who have looked into it are full of praise for the attractiveness of the lay-out, the splendid stock of goods, and the promise of service. Mr. Wood keeps on adding to the charms of Shawshien Village and making the public appreciate that here is being developed one of the bright spots to which the people are sure to go increasingly, because of the advantages to be found there. The opening of the hall on Saturday last, put the beautiful new building at the junction of Main street and Poor street to its first public use. The store supplements it by adding another feature. It is understood that the post office will come next, but already the civic center of Shawshien Village is effectively fixed.

Baptist Church Notes

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Prescott entertained the Church Chorus Thursday evening following the regular rehearsal. Games were played and refreshments of sherbert and cake served. The chorus, under the efficient direction of Mr. Kelly the organist, has done excellent service during the year past.

A nine year gold bar has been earned by Miss Elsie M. Waites for perfect attendance in the Church School during that period, a splendid record.

The Auto race in the Church School was finished last Sunday, New York being reached in a close finish. The race has aroused a splendid enthusiasm in the school.

Considerably over $13,000 has been subscribed in the Hundred Million Dollar Campaign, and best of all one young lady has signified her purpose to become a missionary in the foreign field.

Returns from May Breakfast Announced.

The proceeds from this year's May Breakfast were the largest ever realized and the members of Woman's Relief Corps felt rewarded for their hard work when Mrs. Carl Elander reported at Tuesday night's meeting that the generous sum of $153.66 had been turned into the treasury after all bills were paid.

Six applications for membership were received and at the next meeting, May 25, initiation will be held.

Board of Health Appoints Nurse

Mrs. Lotta Johnson has been chosen as a nurse to work in Andover under the direction of the Board of Health. At the last annual Town Meeting the appropriation for this department was increased $1000 in order to make the appointment of such a nurse possible for a term of six months. It is probable that the Red Cross will bear the expense for the other six months of the year.

At present Mrs. Johnson is busy with clerical work, completing the records of the influenza epidemic which are to be returned to the State. The plans for her work are not yet fully outlined, but they include the tuberculosis work, the supervision of milk, and educational work in the matter of contagious diseases and the correction of many troubles which prove serious later, if neglected in childhood.

Mrs. Johnson has served as an army nurse for two years, having been stationed at several base hospitals. She has made a survey of tuberculosis in the state of Arkansas for the government and by training and experience is qualified to fill the position in Andover efficiently.

Natural History Society Enjoys Bird Walk.

The bird walk postponed from last Saturday afternoon was held on Wednesday of this week. About nineteen members of the Andover Natural History Society enjoyed the walk. Eighteen species of birds were identified, and a nest of underground bees was one of the interesting things noted during the walk. Prof. Emmerton of the Boston Society was a member of the party. A picnic supper was partaken of on the shores of Ponds pond.

The fall meeting of the Federated Societies of Natural History will be held in Lawrence and Andover on September 21 and 22. The meeting Friday night will be held in Lawrence and Saturday the societies, including the Boston Mycological society, will spend the day in Andover. Omar P. Chase, president of the local society has begun to make arrangements for speakers for the occasion.

Violin Recital at Abbot

The pupils of the violin department, assisted by Miss Ethel Dixon, pianist, gave a recital in Davis Hall on Tuesday evening before a large and appreciative audience of students and townspeople. The program was as follows:

Mary Lyon Dolls

There will be on exhibition at the Marionette plays in the town hall, next Thursday afternoon and evening, two of the now famous Mary Lyon dolls. These dolls have been advertised as: "For very little children; huggable; kissable; washable; spankable." The dolls are made of the very best materials and stuffed with sterilized absorbent cotton. The following account appeared recently in print:

"Mary Lyon" was raised in a college town; her guardian being Miss Rebecca Smith of South Hadley, Mass. Miss Smith's father, who is still living, knew the original Miss Lyon, and it was his descriptions of her that inspired Miss Smith to evolve her namesake.

"Mary" is perfectly proportioned, being patterned after human measurements. Her deep blue eyes, ruddy lips, and golden hair have become a familiar sight throughout the land.

Early in her life, "Mary" was adopted as the mascot of the Mt. Holyoke $3,000,000 endowment fund campaign. She and her sisters and brothers traveled through the country, going to every community where there were Holyoke women and helping them to raise the fund.

"Mary's" features are done by hand. Her wardrobe is in college mode. Her stockings are made from silk taken from discarded hose of college students, and her shoes are of kid taken from the gloves of the same philanthropists. The other articles of her clothing, from the thread-like tatting of her neat white petticoat to the crinkled ruff about her neck are the handwork of one of Mount Holyoke's oldest living graduates.

At present "Mary" is doing everything in her power to boost the fund.

Nearly one third of the price of each doll goes to the fund. Orders may be given to any of the following Andover alumnae of Mt. Holyoke: Miss Jane Carpenter, Miss Ruth Mitchell, Miss Edith Johnson, Miss Delight Hall, Miss Rachel Dowd of Abbot Academy. The price of the dolls is $3.50.

Historical Society Plans Pageant

The members of the Andover Historical Society have in mind a pageant for the year 1921 to occur at the approximate date of the 275th anniversary of the settlement of the town.

The Historical Society desires the cooperation of other organizations and societies that the affair may be of public interest, and in order that it may be representative, a call will soon be issued for a meeting at the Historical rooms that plans may be made and a general committee be formed.

Hibernians Concert and Dance

A very successful concert and dance was held last Friday evening in the Town Hall under the auspices of Division 6, A. O. H. John Traynor president of the division, was in charge and gave a short address of welcome, following which an excellent entertainment was presented.

Songs were sung by Miss Mary Caskin of Danvers and Miss Marguerite Conlin of Lawrence, who recently sang here at the K. of C. minstrel show. Miss Caskin appeared before an Andover audience for the first time and made a very favorable impression. Both singers were given encores.

The solo dancing by Miss Dot Bradley and Miss Helen McCarthy both of Lawrence, was very clever and greatly pleased the audience.

The program was as follows:
Selections Millington's Orchestra
Address of Welcome Pres. John Traynor
Solo Dance—Irish Washerwoman
Miss Dot Bradley
Solo—"In the Time of Roses"
"Mother Machree"
"The Last Rose of Summer"
Miss Mary Caskin
Solo Dances—"Irish Jig"
"Sailor's Hornpipe"
Miss Helen McCarthy
Solo—"Somewhere, Someone is Waiting for Me"
"Little Mother of Mine"
Miss Marguerite Conlin

Dancing was enjoyed until midnight, excellent music being furnished by Millington's orchestra of Lawrence. The committee in charge was John Traynor, chairman; Michael O'Connor, John J. Kelly, William Tammany, Malachi Lynch and Frank S. McDonald.

South Church Memorial Organ

A memorial organ for the South church is planned, for the first steps were taken at the recent meeting of the Courteous Circle of King's Daughters who voted $500 toward the project. The church bulletin of Sunday has the following in regard to the movement:

"The funds to repair our church are being subscribed and the $15,000 mark is supposed to be reached. Still more will be needed to do the necessary repairs without counting anything for a much needed organ. Many of our people have cherished the hope that an adequate instrument might be provided, worthy of this historic church. So strongly the members of the Courteous Circle of the King's Daughters have felt the need of this improvement that they have voted to start a Memorial Organ Fund. Some $500.00 will be given as a nucleus, and it is expected that many persons, including some who are not now in the parish, will take this opportunity of placing a memorial in the South Church that will represent the loved ones who worshipped here in former years, but now are among the Heavenly Chords.

It is estimated that $10,000 or $15,000 will be needed for this purpose and it is hoped that the fund will be secured in time to install the organ when the church is renovated.

A very important and uplifting part of true worship, is led and inspired by music. This part of our Church service is provided with painstaking care by our chorister and organist, whose work is beyond praise. His efforts are supported by our loyal choir at much self-sacrifice. Can we not provide an instrument which will give further inspiration to true worship, and, while we listen to its beautiful tones, will draw us consciously nearer those in whose name we have made our contribution to the organ? Any amount, however small, from $10.00 up, may be marked "Organ Fund" and sent to Mrs. F. L. Cole, treasurer of the King's Daughters, 37 Elm street.

Mrs. Platter to Entertain for Benefit of Smith Endowment Fund

Mrs. John Winthrop Platter, who is well known to Andover people, will open her place at 89 Appleton street, Cambridge, on Saturday, May 15th, for a lawn party and outdoor play, to which Smith College alumnae and friends of the college are invited. There will be no charge for admittance, but light refreshments will be sold for the benefit of the endowment fund, and the "specialties" of the districts—such as sport hats, Sophia Smith's Selected Sea Food, "Intelligent Gentlewoman" and olive-oil soap, etc.—will be exhibited that orders may be taken. The lawn party and play will begin promptly at 3.30. It is hoped that a number of Andover people may find it pleasant to go to Cambridge to enjoy it.

OBITUARIES

CLARK CARTER

Rev. Clark Carter, city missionary of Lawrence for many years, died Saturday, May 8th, at his home on Bartlett street. He was born in Boston, October 16, 1841, the son of Elisha and Harriet (Wilson) Carter. He fitted for college under the tutelage of T. C. Edmunds at Framingham and was graduated from Harvard College in the class of 1862. From September, 1862, to April 1864, Mr. Carter was in Port Royal, S. C., as government superintendent of abandoned plantations, serving under General Saxton. In September, 1864, he entered Princeton Theological School and in 1866 he was licensed to preach by the Plymouth Association of Ministers. October 3rd of that year he entered the Theological Institute at Hartford, Conn., and completed his preparation for the ministry in June, 1867. On February 13, 1868, Mr. Carter was ordained and installed in the pastorate of Trinity Congregational Church, Neponset, later preaching at Rockville, Conn., Great Falls, N. H., and going to the pulpit of the South Congregational church, Lawrence, in 1873, after having spent the previous summer and fall temporarily filling the ministry of the Trinity Congregational Church in Lawrence. He continued with the South Church until July, 1888, when he became city missionary and secretary of the Lawrence City Mission.

Under Mr. Carter's leadership the Lawrence City Mission developed from a field limited primarily to emergency poor relief into an organization of large civic and social significance. It has kept pace with the best modern developments in the science of charity organization. Mr. Carter succeeded in maintaining the proper balance between those two classes of workers, one of which seeks to lift people from the gutter, and the other which endeavors to remove the gutter. His efforts in the direction of improved legislation and administration leading to the removal of the causes of poverty never prevented his giving the most painstaking personal attention to the individual appeals of those in trouble. He came to be recognized throughout the state and nation as an expert in child welfare. He had much to do with furthering legislation in Massachusetts for the betterment of labor conditions and the protection of children. For a long period he was the Lawrence agent of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and for a time served as Vice President of the State Conference of Charities. For thirty-five years he acted as chaplain of the Essex County Jail. A large number of social and civic activities were first pioneered on an experimental basis under his leadership in the Lawrence City Mission, such as visiting nurses, milk inspection, the care and feeding of infants, and prevention of tuberculosis. When the need and possibility of effort in these directions had been demonstrated successfully, Mr. Carter was able to get the city government or some other appropriate agency to undertake the necessary activity in order to leave him and his immediate staff free to pioneer and experiment in still other new fields. His activities and service in such city departments as those of education, the poor, the police and the public health have been extensive.

Mr. Carter is survived by three daughters, Mabel Moseley Carter, Harriet Wilson Carter and Alice Cleveland Carter, and one son, Edward Clark Carter.

On Tuesday afternoon brief prayers were read at the home on Bartlett street, after which funeral services were held at the South church. Rev. Frank R. Shipman of Atlanta, Ga., former pastor of the church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow and Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Lawrence.

Preceding and following the services, favorite hymns of the deceased were rendered on the organ by Dr. Herbert W. Manahan of Lawrence.

The bearers were Fred E. Batcheller, Burton S. Flagg, J. Harold Melledge and Paul Rice, all of Andover; Henry L. Sherman of Lawrence and Carl King of Brookline.

The honorary bearers were Hon. Charles U. Bell, Jesse E. Brown of Lawrence, Rev. Arthur Barber of Lawrence, Hon. J. J. Mahoney, Walter E. Parker, president of the Lawrence City Mission, Henry M. Rogers of Boston, a Harvard classmate; Associate Justice Wilbur E. Rowell of Lawrence, Marshall John I. Sullivan of Lawrence, Charles H. Littlefield, Sr., of Lawrence, George E. Kimball of North Andover, Rev. C. Fox Robbins of the Universalist Church, Lawrence, and Rev. J. Donald H. Gernish of the Central M. E. Church, Lawrence. Interment was in the family lot in Spring Grove Cemetery, where final prayers were read by Rev. Mr. Shipman.

MRS. IRA O. GRAY

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Gray, wife of Ira O. Gray, died suddenly on Friday, May 7th, at the family home, 32 Washington avenue. She was born in Reading sixty-four years ago and had lived in Andover for the last forty years.

To mourn her loss she leaves besides her husband, three sons, Arthur of Reading, Clarence and Harold, both of Andover; one daughter, Alice of Andover; three brothers, Charles and Ruben Melendy, both of Boston, and Osman of Andover, and a sister, Etta, of Reading.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at her home. Rev. E. Victor Bigelow, pastor of the South church, read prayers. The A. O. U. W. ritual was read by Mrs. Isabelle Abbott, chief, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Bruce, past chief of the organization. Mrs. Addie Eaker and Mrs. Catherine Tay-

COOKIES and SMALL CAKES

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

WHEN the children romp in hungry as young bears, here are some wholesome, economical delights that will not only be received with glee, but will satisfy the most ravenous appetite in a most wholesome manner.

Cookies
 1 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup milk
 2 eggs
 1 teaspoon grated nutmeg
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract or
 1 teaspoon of 1 lemon
 4 cups flour
 3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Cream shortening and sugar together; add milk to beaten eggs and beat again; add slowly to creamed shortening and sugar; add nutmeg and flavoring; add 2 cups flour sifted with baking powder; add enough more flour to make stiff dough. Roll out very thin on floured board; cut with cookie cutter, sprinkle with sugar, or put a raisin or a piece of English walnut in the center of each. Bake about 12 minutes in hot oven.

At Ladies' Night at the Free church, Men's Club, Attorney Cora E. Abbott was one of the speakers of the evening. Her subject being "Woman's Work."

Miss Emily B. Tracy of Muncie, Indiana and John E. Tracy of New York City, were guests of their aunt, Mrs. George P. Byington over the week-end.

The B. V. V. L. S. has been replacing some of the trees on the streets of the village. The flower bed and grass plot in the square are also being attended to by the society.

The young people of the local Catholic church are planning to hold a May party in the Community room next Friday evening. The proceeds are for the benefit of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Albie Le Baron and daughter of Malden, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Edmonds, Nat and Wilfred Edmonds of Saugus, visited at the home of E. C. Edmonds on Sunday.

Prof. M. A. Dawber of the Boston University will give a talk in the Methodist vestry tomorrow evening. The speaker has had a large experience in community work and is sure to be highly interesting.

Tickets for the entertainment to be given in the Town Hall on May 20th for the M. H. Lynde College Fund are on sale in the Vale by Miss Martha Byington. This entertainment is something new to Andover and is sure to be of interest. Also the cause is most worthy.

At a recent meeting of the board of engineers the following persons were appointed officers of the local hose company for the ensuing year: Jeremiah Cronin, captain; Ralph Bruce, 1st lieutenant; John Oldroyd, clerk; Jeremiah Cronin, treasurer; John Haggerty, Ralph Greenwood and Patrick Murnane, standing committee.

Fell from Roof

A narrow escape from very serious injury was sustained by John Howell on Monday when he fell from the roof of James Petty's house on Center street, while at work there. Mr. Howell has been assisting Herbert Clark in adding a new room to the house and was shingling the roof when the staging gave way and he fell to the ground. His fall was partly broken by catching his foot in a lower staging. Medical attention was summoned and it was found that two ribs were fractured and his foot wrenched severely, besides numerous bruises. Mr. Howell is now resting as comfortably as can be expected at his home in Andover.

Mothers' Club

A very enjoyable in-between meeting was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Holmes Bates on Marland street. The mothers are busily engaged in sewing on another quilt which is one of many ordered.

Nomination of officers for next year was in order, and the following persons were nominated: president, Mrs. Louis Buck; vice-president, Mrs. Ralph Bruce; secretary, Mrs. Freeman Abbott; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Clemens. Other plans were discussed, among them being a chicken dinner which will be served at a later date. Dainty refreshments of cake, cookies and coffee were served by the hostess.

All who are interested in electric washers have learned that this machine is considered one of the best made. A gentleman who sees a Gainaday of the same type that I am showing every day in connection with his business line in Andover, noticed one in my window and came in to say this to me:

"I see you sell the Gainaday Washer and I want to tell you that I think it the best in the market as I have been using one constantly every day for over a year in my business and have found it entirely satisfactory."

If you are interested I will give you this gentleman's name that you may find out more particulars.

C. J. FRANCIS, Authorized Representative.

WEST PARISH

Amy Fogarty of Lawrence was the guest of Helen Lewis on Thursday.

Elizabeth G. Lewis of Danvers spent the week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis of Lowell street.

Fannie S. Lewis of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Training School was at her home on Lowell street on Sunday.

Mrs. August Palm of Blanchard street has been quite ill, but at this writing is reported as being more comfortable.

Mrs. Frank H. Hardy and Mrs. A. S. Crockett are at Dartmouth College for the Junior Prom. They are the guest of Kenneth Hardy who graduates this year.

Dorothy B. Cutler of Mount Holyoke wrote part of the music for the very successful play "Hand Painted" recently given at the College. Miss Cutler is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville K. Cutler of Lowell street.

Sunday, May 16th, is to be observed as Rally Day at the West church. Special singing is planned and other interesting exercises. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present. Help us to make it a success by being present and bringing some one with you.

The fire truck was called to the home of Mrs. Moulton on Brown street on Friday. The fire was in a bed room and the cause unknown. After the truck left, the fire broke out again in a closet. This was quickly extinguished without further damage.

The Woman's Club of Andover Grange will meet on Friday afternoon and evening, May 21st. Mrs. Carter, the newly elected president and Mrs. George York, secretary, assisted by Mr. Carter, Mr. York and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Lane, will entertain. It is hoped that a large number of ladies will be present in the afternoon as matters of importance are to be discussed. Supper will be served at the usual hour, followed by dancing.

A well attended meeting of Grangers greeted Miss Gladys Stratton and Professor Cooley of Amherst on Tuesday evening. Miss Stratton gave an address which had many helpful suggestions in it and gave everyone something to think about. Prof. Cooley handled his subject "Dairying" in his usual efficient way. The next meeting will be in charge of Miss Madeleine Hewes. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

South Church Notes

The Men's Club May Meeting with reports of the year's work and election of officers will be held on Friday evening, May 21st. The work of the year has been filled with interesting events and the wind-up meeting of the year promises to be a good one.

The present insurrections in Mexico have turned the eyes of the world upon our Southern neighbor and the perplexities of the Mexican people are not easily to be solved. But throughout all the changes of government, the faithful work of the American Board missionaries is having its good effect educating and uplifting. There is a very interesting account of "Life Beyond the Rio Grande" which has been made by Rev. Alfred C. Wright and will be illustrated by eighty colored slides at the South church vestry on Sunday evening at 7.30, May 16th. The public is invited.

The annual Cradle Roll party of the South Church will be held on Tuesday afternoon, May 25th from 2.30 to 4.00 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. P. Bartlett Whittemore, and the usual large gathering of babies playing together upon the vestry floor will be enjoyed.

Alice in Wonderland

For the benefit of the Bryn Mawr College Endowment Fund a performance of the film version of Lewis Carroll's famous classic, "Alice in Wonderland", will be given at the Victoria Theatre on Broadway in Lawrence, on Saturday morning May 22nd at 10 o'clock. Bryn Mawr seeks to pay a living wage for a teaching staff of the right kind, and in order to secure funds for this purpose has arranged for the rights of this $50,000 six-reel Eskey Harris production of the best beloved children's tale.

Neither time nor expense has been spared in the filming of this version of the Carroll masterpiece of little Alice and her animal friends. Twelve year old Viola Savoy, an exceptionally talented child actress, portrays Alice, with Herbert Rice and a corps of nimble and experienced midget actors as the animals.

The original story has been followed closely, and all the characters so dear to the hearts of young folk are to be seen, including the White Rabbit, the Blue Caterpillar, the Mad Hatter, the Cheshire Cat, the sleepy Dormouse, the Mock Turtle and the rest.

Quant picturesque Cape Ann formed the background for the scenes between Alice and the Mock Turtle and the Gryphon, as well as for the famous Lobster Quadrille. Other sections of New England and parts of New Jersey were utilized as backgrounds for the other scenes.

The continuing was based on the drawings made for the original edition by Sir John Tenniel, and were made under the personal direction of Herbert L. Messmore.

Tickets are on sale at the Andover Bookstore for 33 cents.

ABBOTT VILLAGE

Miss Ivy Hackney of Red Spring road visited Salisbury Beach last Sunday.

Alexander McGlaughlin of Red Spring road has left the employ of Smith and Dove Company.

Miss Eva Cunio of Waburn visited her sister, Mrs. Timothy McCarthy of Red Spring road on Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Soutar of Melrose visited her mother, Mrs. Isabel McGlaughlin of Red Spring road, last Friday.

Preparations are completed for raising a section of the new mill of the Smith and Dove plant. Three hundred feet of the new building will be raised one story.

Charles J. Hughes was presented with a travelling bag by the Overseers' Club, the occasion being his leaving the employ of Smith and Dove Company after nine years' service.

A baseball game between the Old and New Mill teams will be played Saturday on the new diamond. Candidates will be picked from the teams to make the regular Smith and Dove team.

Baptist Mission Circle

On the afternoon of May 6th, a good number of the ladies of the Baptist Ladies' Mission Circle met with Mrs. E. H. Prescott, to learn of Korea, Siam, and the Philippines. Before the study came devotional exercises and business, conducted by the president, Mrs. Curtis Wilson. It was voted that our women should lend a hand (several parts of them, in fact) in making towels and face cloths for a woman's hospital in India built of Jubilee offerings. Interesting letters were read. One told of profitable work in a Vacation Bible School in Boston, its attendance having doubled in the past year, its members willingly engaged in making many articles for the children's hospital and delighted to learn many Bible verses. Another letter was from a missionary in Burma, who gives away, or sells, all the picture post cards sent her, whether used or not, and can use almost any number.

Mrs. Wilson gave a report from the Baptist Missionary Meeting held in Lowell the previous day. The "White Cross" work interested her especially. This is the work undertaken by our Home Mission Society "for the purpose of sending needed supplies to our Mission Schools, Mission Stations and Mission hospitals." The New England District is asked to send barrels or boxes to six southern schools and to care for the personal and field needs of its sixteen missionaries, working in New England among five nationalities.

The program was well carried out by its leader, Mrs. Ellis Hudson, Mrs. A. A. Soper and Miss Edna P. Todd. Mrs. Soper gave the longest selection with fine spirit. With glowing face she told us all about Korea right out of her heart, as if she were a missionary just back from that country, her whole soul on fire with the needs of the people and with the great power of Jesus Christ to meet every need of man.

Contrasting traits, discouragements, encouragements, work and needs of the Philippines and Siam were set forth vividly to the interested audience. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served. These consisted of fragrant hot tea and a delicious new sort of dessert, called "egg on toast," and looking enough like that food to deceive keen eyes. The hostess received much praise and joking for her pleasant and attractive surprise.

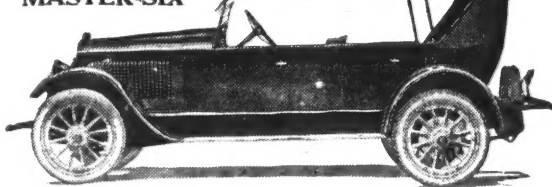

The great drawback to their country cottage was that all their water had to be drawn from a brook. Mrs. Thompson one evening sent the little maid to fetch a pail of water, but they could see the girl standing gazing at the flowing stream, apparently lost in thought.

"What's she waiting for?" said her mistress, who was watching.

"Dunno," wearily replied hubby.

"Perhaps she hasn't found a pailful she likes yet."

More Use of Sweaters

One of the most potent influences in summer neckwear fashions is the sweater. In sections of the country where golfing and various outdoor sports prevail, handsome sweaters of silk and fine wool are now being worn with dainty "fronts", guimpes or narrow, exquisite collars. Frequently matching cuffs are used to complete the illusion that the sweater is worn over a separate blouse. In some instances extra neckwear accessories are carried in a bag for use in freshening up the sweater after the game, says the Dry Goods Economist. The supremacy of the tuxedo type of sweater is credited with the recent revival of the long, narrow, rolling collar. This type of collar is also appropriate for use with tailor-mades having the narrow rolled revers opened to the waist. Various other collar shapes continue to be widely represented and as soon as the weather permits of the wearing of summer dresses they should become a factor in summer wear.

Thoroughness Pays

A hotel man who has scored a notable success says that one of the most inspired things he ever did was to instruct his chambermaids to turn down the bed coverings in the guests' rooms during the dinner hour in the evening.

This little touch of home has won the good will of hundreds who were unimpressed by many other ordinary services.

Anybody can get a job done in the ordinary way, or render a service in the ordinary way. It takes a little thought to put on the finishing touch that makes the job—and you—a bit extraordinary.

Thoroughness is a quality for which most employers are glad to pay pretty liberally.

Down in Louisville, Kentucky, there is a wallpaper hanger who hangs paper no better than half a dozen of his competitors, but this man has built up an unusually large business because of the thoroughness with which he does his work.

When pressed for the secret of his success, he said:

"Most paperhangers think their job is done when the paper is on the walls and ceiling. That's the point at which I begin to put in a few extra taps. I pick up all the litter, sweep the floors and wipe off the window casings."

"This takes an hour or two of time, and I get a boy at twenty cents an hour to do the work. It pays me five times that in advertising."

Thoroughness costs something in time and energy, but it pays regular dividends.

PROBATE COURT

ESSEX, ss.
 To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Jane A. Glidden late of Andover in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Eugene E. Glidden of South Berwick in the state of Maine without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Salem in said County of Essex, on the thirty-first day of May A.D. 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover the last publication to be on day, at least, before said court.

Witness, Harry R. Dow, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this eighth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

HORACE H. ATHERTON, JR., Registrar.

TOWN OF ANDOVER

ASSESSORS' NOTICE

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 41 of Part I of Chapter 490 of the Acts of 1909, as amended by Sec. 36, Chap. 257, General Acts of 1918, all persons firms, and corporations, domestic or foreign, subject to taxation in the town of Andover are hereby notified and required to bring in to the assessors of said town

ON OR BEFORE THE 15th DAY OF MAY NEXT true lists. In case of residents a true list of all their polls and personal estate not exempt from taxation, of which they were possessed on the first day of April in the current year, and in case of non-residents and foreign corporations a true list of all their personal estate in said town not exempt from taxation, and all persons, firms and corporations, domestic or foreign, are hereby notified and required to include and set forth in said lists their real estate subject to taxation in said town, which lists must be verified by oath as required by Section 41 of said Part I, as amended by Chapter 294 of the General Acts of 1916.

Under the provisions of Section 42 of said Part I, as amended by Chapter 515, Acts of 1909, the above-mentioned lists must be in form prescribed by the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation of the Commonwealth. These blank forms may be had at the Assessors' office, or will be mailed to any address upon application.

Section 45 of Part I of Chapter 490, Acts of 1909. A mortgage or mortgage of real estate may bring into the assessors of the city or town in which it lies, within the time prescribed by the notice under section forty-one, a statement under oath, of the amount secured thereon and on each separate parcel thereof, with the name and residence of every holder of an interest therein as mortgage or mortgagee. If such property is situated in two or more places, or if a recorded mortgage includes two or more estates or parts of an estate as security for one sum, such statement shall include an estimate of the interest of the mortgagee in each estate or part of an estate. The assessors shall, from such statement or otherwise, ascertain the proportionate interests of the mortgage or mortgagee, respectively, in said estates, and shall assess the same accordingly. If, in any year, such statement is not brought in, the tax for that year on such real estate shall not be invalid merely for the reason that the interest in the mortgage therein has not been assessed to him.

In accordance with Section 41 aforesaid, amended as aforesaid, all persons and corporations are hereby required to bring in to the assessors, on or before the 15th day of May next, true lists of all real and personal estate held by them, respectively, for literary, temperance, benevolent, charitable, or scientific purposes on the first day of April, in the current year, or at the election of any such corporation on the last day of its financial year last preceding said first day of April, together with statements of the amounts of all receipts and expenditures for said purposes during the year next preceding said day, such lists and statements to be in accordance with blanks furnished by the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation.

Chapter 578 of the Acts of 1913, as amended by Chapter 523 of the Acts of 1914, which provides for the exemption from taxation of personal property held by cities, towns, religious societies and churches, whether incorporated or unincorporated, for the purposes stated in said act, requires that the holder thereof bring into the assessors a list of such property in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph. All such owners are hereby required to bring in such lists within the time and in the manner stated in said paragraph.

NORTH ANDOVER

Saturday, May 8—Contractor D. J. Costello is erecting eleven two-tenement houses on Union street for the Brightwood Manufacturing Company.

This town will receive $7,500 from Lawrence for furnishing that city with an auxiliary supply of water.—The annual meeting of the historic North Parish Church occurred Thursday evening in Unitarian Hall. An excellent supper was served at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. E. J. Prescott, the minister, said grace. Peter Holt was chosen moderator of the meeting. The various reports of the officers and committees submitted and accepted, showed that the affairs of the church were in a live condition. The following officers were elected: Clerk, Moses T. Stevens; treasurer, Samuel D. Stevens; collector, Warren L. Stevens; parish committees, Miss Mary B. Phillips, George B. Thomas, three years; Dr. Joseph Kittredge, two years; Miss Frances H. Stevens, one year. The nominating committee included Miss Kate H. Stevens, Mrs. Isaac Osgood and Moses T. Stevens.—Daniel C. Smith has purchased the homestead and adjoining seven and one-half acres of land at Elm Vale, in the Centre, the residence of the late Mr. Carney. Mr. Smith also bought the three acres opposite the house, fronting on Osgood street and Massachusetts avenue. It is understood that Mr. Smith has purchased it for occupancy.—A large audience greatly enjoyed a cantata, "The Building of the Ship" finely presented by pupils of the Johnson High school in Stevens hall Friday evening.

Monday, May 10—Mrs. Ivar L. Sjostrom was a matron at Miss Marion Crawford's annual reception. No. 10, her dancing classes in City hall, Lawrence, and the Misses Olga and Elizabeth Sjostrom and Miss Muriel Rundlett were favor girls.—County Commissioner James C. Poor of Riverview Farm is a candidate for re-election this fall.

Tuesday, May 11—David W. Creelman, state supervisor of assessors, after an inspection of a copy of the valuation list of North Andover for 1919, says that "It is as good if not better than any in the state."—The closing meeting of the season of the Women's Alliance of the North Parish church will take place next Thursday afternoon in Unitarian hall, at the Centre, beginning at three o'clock. The speaker will be Miss Sally Reynolds of Salem. Mrs. Samuel D. Stevens, Miss Sarah E. Abbott and Miss Susan B. Carter are to serve tea. The next regular meeting of the Alliance will not be until October.—The Women's Auxiliary to the North Andover Post, American Legion, voted to accept an invitation from Rev. William E. Patrick, chaplain of the post, to attend services in St. Paul's church on Memorial Sunday. The members of the post will be guests of the auxiliary on Monday evening, May 24th, at the North Andover clubhouse, when an entertainment program will be carried out and refreshments served. The auxiliary is in excellent condition and has a membership of fifty-six.—John W. Bolton, proprietor of the Eagle Bar and Knife works, has purchased the old Hall estate on Chestnut street, North Andover from Herman Yungelbauer. The property consists of a large dwelling house and a tract of land. It was originally the old Hall estate but has been occupied by Mr. Yungelbauer for the past ten years.

Wednesday, May 12—James R. Baldwin and family of 184 Railroad avenue attended the funeral of his father, Loummi Franklin Baldwin, held this afternoon in Woburn. The deceased was born in Naples, Ill., in 1849, was a retired civil engineer and grandson of Col. Loammi Baldwin who built the Middlesex canal and gave the name of "Baldwin" to the apple.—Mr. and Mrs. William D. Rundlett and daughter, Miss Muriel Rundlett, are to remove May 19 from 32 Stonington street to North Adams, where the first-named holds an important position with a machinery manufacturing plant. Their new home will be at 43 Montana street, North Adams.—Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton Morse, whose home on Johnson street was destroyed by fire, have taken up their residence at the J. H. D. Smith place, Academy road, in the Centre.—Of perhaps more than local interest is a competition among the school children of North Andover for the best essay on "Florence Nightingale, Her Work and Influence," which commences May 12. A prize of $3.00 for the best Grammar School essay, of not more than 300 words, and a prize of $5.00 for the best High school essay of not more than 100 words has been offered by an interested citizen. This competition is open to any North Andover school child in the Grammar or High schools. The judges are to be Mrs. John Everett, Miss Sallie M. Field and Charles A. Appleton.

METHUEN

Monday, May 10—The Methuen High School Washington party which left this city at noon, April 29th, arrived here yesterday noon after perhaps one of the most interesting and instructive trips of a similar nature ever taken by any high school group. The party was in charge of Instructor W. S. Ross who planned the trip with its many side excursions, and to him a great deal of credit is due for the smooth and efficient manner in which it was conducted from start to finish.—At 1:30 P. M. the day service was held at the afterglow vesper service. Antonio Gerardi, violinist, of the Boston Symphony, rendered several selections. White carnations were distributed to the mothers present by four little girls and the pastor gave a short address on "Who is Like Unto a Mother?"—"Mother's Day" was observed at the First Baptist church, Sunday morning. Flowers were distributed to the mothers present and Mrs. George H. Brock of India told the story of "Mothers of Many Lands."

LAWRENCE

Monday May 10—Directly after the morning service in Grace Episcopal church yesterday ground was broken for the new church school and parish house building on Garden street. Members of the congregation were present at the exercises which were conducted by Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody, and at which the choir sang.—The employees of the Lawrence Lumber company who struck last week because their demands for a wage increase were not granted have returned to work, a compromise having been reached.—Thursday will probably mark the crisis of the strike of the local Stationary Engineers. On that date the state law prohibiting the employment of unlicensed engineers for a period of more than one week goes into effect, as does the contemplated strike of the boiler firemen employed in the mills and shops.—The Fourth of July this year will undoubtedly be a bigger day in Lawrence than it has been in several years. The City Council voted Monday to instruct Mayor White and City Clerk Wade to investigate and submit a report of recommendations for the observance of the holiday. The members seemed favorable to entertainments for the children in the morning, band concerts and fireworks in the evening, but not anything which would conflict with the big field day of the Loyal Order of Moose of all New England which will be held in O'Sullivan park.

—Purchasing Agent Maurice F. McKenna opened bids for the 12 trailers to be used in the new system of garbage collection which will shortly be installed in the Health Department. Bids were submitted by seven different firms. No award was made. Purchasing Agent McKenna will take up the bids with Alderman Maloney and Supt. of Sanitation Daniel J. Murphy for general discussion and investigation before making the award. The new system should be in operation by the early part of July if the award is made shortly.

—Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody conducted the services at Grace Church Sunday for the first time as rector, Bishop Moulton having gone to Milford over the week-end. Bishop Moulton leaves the city Tuesday for his new field in Utah.—The city council voted Monday morning to seize by right of eminent domain the Riding park in South Lawrence and set Monday, May 17, as a date for a public hearing on the question of damages. By law the city cannot pay more than 25 per cent over the average assessed valuation for the last three years. If this figure is unsatisfactory to the owners they have the right to take the matter to court for a jury's decision.—There will be no professional boxing matches at city parks if the aldermen can prevent it. They have the majority vote so it appears that they will have their way.—Common street will undoubtedly be widened from Lawrence to Jackson streets by the abolishing of the sidewalk immediately outside the curb of the common. This suggestion, made some time ago by the City Planning board, was given the City Council Monday morning by Justin E. Varney of the Bay State bank. The walk is rarely used at present.—The proposed increase of 50 cents per day for the police and firemen will become effective the end of next week.—The next move the police will make it is predicted, will be a movement for the grading of the men so that the older members will secure a larger wage. The firemen's next attention will, it is intimated, be an attempt to better their working conditions, many of the men being dissatisfied with the two-platoon system as in operation here. They will, if it is possible, work for an immediate change of the system or campaign for (eight hours a day) a three-platoon system.—Aldermen Peter Carr and Robert S. Maloney have been appointed as a special committee from the council to consider means whereby the salaries of Fire Chief Francis J. Morris, Deputy Fire Chief Michael McPhee and Acting City Marshal Timothy J. O'Brien can be increased. With the proposed increase to the police and firemen, Deputy Chief McPhee will be the lowest paid official in the fire department and will receive approximately the pay of a private. Marshal O'Brien will receive only slightly more than the assistants and Chief Morris will be paid lower than one captain in the fire department. The fire chief has threatened to quit when his subordinates receive a higher compensation than himself.

Tuesday, May 11—Rev. Samuel McChord Crothers, pastor of the First Unitarian church of Cambridge and an author of note will speak at the Unitarian church in this city at seven o'clock Sunday night. Dr. Crothers is the author of many essays which are noted for their human point of view which have appeared in the Atlantic Monthly and of several volumes of essays. He is one of the most eloquent preachers of the present day.—The annual meeting of the Lawrence Community Council was held at four o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms with the chairman, Richard Ward, presiding. The nominating committee reported the following nominations for the ensuing year: Chairman, Richard Ward; vice chairman, Wilbur E. Rowell; secretary, Myra H. Church; treasurer, Justin E. Varney and the nominees were unanimously elected.—Work has been started cutting up the Daly farm on Tower hill into house lots. The land which has passed from Mrs. Hannah Daly into the hands of Charles E. Battershill and others comprises about forty-five acres and will be cut up into 300 house lots. Workmen have already started extending Lowell, Essex and other streets through the plot to the Lowell boulevard which is to form the main artery of travel in that vicinity.—Officials in charge of the strike of the members of the local Engineers' Union announced Tuesday morning the strike had been practically settled. With that announcement also, came another to the effect that the contemplated sympathy strike by the members of the Boiler Firemen's Union, scheduled for Thursday, would not take place.

Wednesday, May 12—One of the most sensational liquor raids ever staged in this city was carried out between 11 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock this morning by Federal agents under W. J. McCarthy. Hotel Needham was the scene of the search and it is believed that about 750 quarts of whiskey were found there. Of this amount there were three barrels containing from 45 to 48 gallons each, two kegs containing about ten gallons each, and about 270 pint bottles.—Perhaps one of the largest deals recorded for some time is the transfer from the David Pingree Estate of Salem, to Barnard L. McDonald and others of Lawrence, of a tract of land, some 48 acres on Andover street in South Lawrence. This tract, which is but three minutes walk from the end of the Beacon street electric car line, has a frontage of 2000 feet or more on Andover street and runs from the street to the Merrimack river. It is understood that the new owners intend to have this tract laid out by Olmstead Brothers, landscape gardeners, and as soon as this is done will lay out streets with a pretentious entrance on Andover street about midway of the frontage on that street with a broad avenue, leading to the Merrimack river, from this avenue, streets will be laid out to the East and West. Plans are now being prepared by the architects for modern up-to-date bungalows and houses with all modern conveniences to be erected at an early date. It will be possible to erect some four or five hundred houses on this tract, which will help much to relieve the great shortage in housing conditions at the present time.

League of Women Voters

The Essex County League of Women Voters has called a business meeting at the Berry Tavern, Danvers, Saturday, May 15th under the direction of Mrs. Charles H. Masury. A feature of the meeting will be the citizenship program conducted by the Committee on Citizenship of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association.

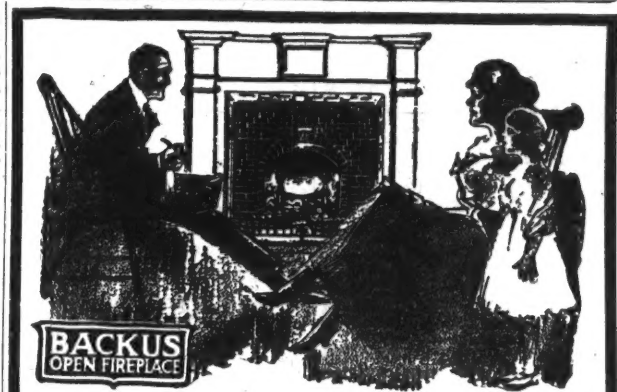

The speakers announced for the School are Mrs. Martha J. Coffey, formerly with the State Bureau of Immigration, who will speak on "Teaching Citizenship"; Miss Carol Colburn of Boston, chairman of Community Service, Boston City Federation of Women's Clubs, will advise the women on "The Choice of a Political Party"; and "Practical Government" will be described by Mrs. True Worthy White, who is the author of the "Massachusetts Primer of Citizenship and Government."

Miss Stella W. Jones, representing the University Extension Division of the State Department of Education, will speak on "What the University Extension Board Offers." The cooperation in civic teaching between the University Extension Board of the State and the Citizenship Committee is expected to work out some interesting results in providing civic instruction throughout the State.

Delegates from all parts of Essex County will attend this meeting.

Why Not Try Straw Sandals?

Residents of Cordova, Spain, of all places, where the old Moors had a trust on Cordovan leather made from goat skins (and still the best thing for book binding, as it is not eaten up like sheepskin by insects)—well, this place has gone in for straw sandals to reduce the cost of living. On account of the danger of hookworm for bare feet and other perils lurking in our own streets here, why cannot some patriotic shoe dealer introduce straw sandals or any other kind. They can be worn by every one over hose, but hose that needs a thumb like a mitten and this can be cut in any ordinary hose and bound neatly, unless the manufacture of suitable styles of hose can accompany the sandal business. This would be a help in summer weather for small pocketbooks and home-made ones can be devised by most Yankees. A top piece can be devised that avoids the slap, slap of our Chinese laundryman's canvas outfit in place of the toe section. Then with paper slippers for house wear, we can cut till the leather judgements rolls by. C. H. A.

Phillips Academy Notes

Donald B. MacMillan, the Arctic explorer, gave a talk on his voyage to the Arctic regions, illustrated by slides and films, in the gymnasium, Saturday evening.

The school has received a letter from Henry D. Sleeper, director of the American Ambulance Field Service, thanking the school for the Ambulance No. 127, which was furnished by them during the World War.

Dr. Claude M. Fuess, of the faculty is adding a supplement to his recent book, "Phillips Academy, Andover, in the Great War," published by the Yale University Press, which brings the war records of the alumni up to date.

Warren K. Moorehead of the Archaeology department recently gave an illustrated talk before the Maine Historical society on "The Importance of Archaeology Work in the State of Maine." Several thousand specimens have been presented by the Andover department to the State Museum at Augusta.

On the evening of Friday, June 4th, M. Bonnet of St. Eustache, Paris, will give a recital on the new organ in the chapel.

The Andover Commencement will be this year on Thursday and Friday, June 17th and 18th, and reunions will be held by the classes of 1865, '70, '75, '80, '85, '90, '95, '00, '05, '10 and '15.

Contributions are still coming in for the Building and Endowment Fund which will keep open until Commencement time. The total to date is practically $1,605,000.00, by about 2625 subscribers out of a total of 7550 living alumni whose addresses are known.

A scholarship to be named the Wright Scholarship, in memory of Jack Morris Wright, a graduate of Phillips Academy, 1st lieutenant of aviation, who died in service has been established in one of the French universities.

The debate for the H. S. Robinson Prizes will be held on Wednesday evening, May 19th. Three men from the Philomathean Society will compete with a team of three representing the school for the prize of $30.00, $10.00 being awarded to each member of the winning team.

BALLARDVALE

Mrs. Roy M. Haynes is spending the weekend at York Beach, Me.

Mrs. E. C. Edmunds has accepted a position as proof reader at the Andover Press.

Clifford Wrigley, who recently underwent an operation at the Lawrence General Hospital, is improving in health.

Mrs. George Moody and Mrs. Prudence Brown attended a concert given by the Boston University orchestra in the college hall on Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will hold the last meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Amos B. Loomer of Andover street, on Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. William Shaw made a ringing enthusiastic address at the prohibition dinner and rally held in Gilbert Hall, Tremont Temple, on Monday evening. His speech dealt largely with Gov. Coolidge's veto of the 2.75 per cent. He spoke in the highest praise of Gov. Coolidge for the courage and trustworthiness displayed in vetoing the obnoxious bill and censured members of the Massachusetts Legislature who had passed such a base measure. At the meeting of the prohibition state committee, Dr. Shaw was elected chairman.

Annual Business Meeting of Sunday School

The annual business meeting of the Congregational church Sunday School was held in the vestry last evening with only a small number in attendance. The meeting was short and very little new business was brought forward. Reports from the officers for the past year were read and approved. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: superintendent, Wm. Shaw; assistant superintendent, Frank H. Petty; secretary, Arlene Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Laura Juhlmann; auditor, F. R. Petty; superintendent, primary department, Elta Greenwood; superintendent Home Department, Mrs. B. F. Stafford; superintendent Cradle Roll, Mrs. R. M. Haynes; librarian, Stephen Byington.

It was decided not to appoint the concert committee at this time, but at a date nearer the event. A picnic in the summer was approved and Mrs. Roy M. Haynes was elected chairman of a committee with power to choose her own assistants to arrange for such an affair. As is customary, five dollars was voted for the purchase of new books for the Sunday School library. As no other business was brought forward the meeting then adjourned.

Punchard Alumni Association to Give Dance

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Punchard Alumni Association held on Wednesday evening, plans were completed for a dance to be given in Punchard Hall on the evening of Tuesday, May 25th.

The committee plans to have the society raise a $1500 fund toward the purchase of a new piano, a curtain and a clock for the school hall. The most pressing need is for a new piano and the proceeds from the dance will be used for that purpose.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our thanks to the many friends who by their kind deeds, and words of comfort and sympathy tried to make our burden lighter in this hour of sadness.

Christ Church Notes

There will be held in St. Paul's Church of North Andover at 3 o'clock, Saturday, the opening service for the Merrimack Branch of the Church School Union. After the service, routine business, with election of officers, various missionary addresses and supper will follow, in the parish house. The whole is planned to take up four hours.

The Girls' Friendly Society are to hold their Admission Service on Sunday at 1 o'clock in Christ Church. All who are interested in their work and aims will be welcome.

Ladies' Night at Phillips Club

At eight o'clock on Monday evening, May 17th, in the Peabody House, Professor Edward Y. Hunkers, formerly of Andover, will speak informally on "Old Andover Days."

Members of the Club are requested to bring their friends. The ladies are cordially invited to be present.

The inscription will be selected by Mr. and Mrs. Trow and probably will be written by the Rev. J. Edgar Park, formerly of the West Parish Church.

Birthday Surprise Party

Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Joseph Bourdelais on Osgood road, Thursday evening, the occasion being a birthday surprise party for Miss Mary Bourdelais. The dining room was prettily decorated in yellow and white. The table was lighted by candles, the centerpiece being decorated with a large birthday cake surrounded by pansies among which were hidden pennies, one for each year.

The living room was decorated in pink and white. One beautiful gift was a rustic basket filled with pink carnations.

When the company had gathered, little Wilfred Cyr, a nephew of Miss Bourdelais, dressed as little Lord Fauntleroy, entered bearing a plate on which were gifts of money for each year. This was presented to Miss Bourdelais with the original speech, "Aunt Mame, we all wish you many happy birthdays."

The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games. Other gifts came from absent friends and many cards were reminders of the love and esteem in which Miss Bourdelais is held.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Soloists Announced for Coming Concert

Mrs. Laura Littlefield and George Boynton of Boston, and Everett Collins of Andover, will be the soloists of the joint concert by the Leonora Society of Bradford Academy and the choir of Phillips, which is to be given in the Chapel Church on Wednesday evening, May 26. The chorus of one hundred voices will be assisted by an orchestra from Boston.

The program will be as follows:

Part 1
"The Seasons"—Spring—the words by Thompson.

Part 2
Homage to Spring—Gerick

Be Not Afraid, from Mendelssohn's "Elijah"

Hail Bright Abode, from Wagner's "Tannhauser"

On Friday evening, June 4, M. Bonnet, organist of St. Eustache, Paris, perhaps the greatest living organ virtuoso, will re-dedicate the organ.

M. Bonnet sails for France the next morning and the school has been fortunate in securing his services for the evening before his departure.

Presented With Purse

Charles J. Hughes, who has resigned his position as overseer of the Spinning department of the Smith and Dove Manufacturing Company, was pleasantly surprised at his office when he concluded his services and was presented with a purse of money by the employees of that department. He was also given another surprise when the employees of the Dry Twisting department in which he was a former overseer, presented him with a beautiful smoking set.

Mr. Hughes has been employed for many years at the local concern and has been prominent in its social and athletic activities, a member of the overseers' club and a past president of the bowling league. He was also a director in the recently organized athletic association.

Tree Warden Edward H. Berry announces that he is to start next week, spraying the trees of Andover. Those wishing to have work done should notify him at once.

Marshall during her readings and also for her solos.

The speakers were Miss Cora E. Abbott, Andover's only woman lawyer, and Rev. Charles P. MacGregor of the Second Baptist church, Lawrence. Both made their first appearance before an Andover audience and were given a cordial reception.

Miss Abbott spoke on "Woman's Work," dwelling on the fact that in the present scheme of things, woman's sphere of usefulness is not confined to the home, but may be extended into the broad field of world activities.

Rev. Charles P. MacGregor spoke on the "World of Today." He said that as he walked abroad he found four classes of people; those who lived in the past, those who waited for the future, those who thought only of the immediate present and those who reflected pleasantly on the past, had visions of the future, but planned for the present. The latter are the optimists. The good days are not those of the past, but those that are coming, and the days that our fathers enjoyed are as nothing compared with present days. We are living in a great and glorious age and he said he was optimistic enough to feel certain that the world is getting better.

As evidence that the world is getting better Mr. MacGregor cited the old days when slavery flourished. These were the good old days talked about. Women at that time were not allowed to hold property in their own name nor had they the right to say what would become of their own children. The good old days hardly compare with the present day when women are fast coming into their own. The glory of America is not her manhood but the glory of her womanhood.

Speaking of the church Mr. MacGregor said that there never was a time when the Christian church occupied the place that it does today. It has its weakness but the good old days of competition had given place to the present day spirit of cooperation. The world is better, the church stronger and the day for greater things has arrived. He said he would rather live in this than in any other age and wrestle with the problems which confront the world and the church, for never before have there been such opportunities for great and glorious victory.

Mr. MacGregor's address was greatly enjoyed and his many stories illustrating the points he wished to emphasize created much amusement.

The program was as follows:

Selection—"Let the Rest of the World Go By"

Miss Mary Caldwell, Miss Kitty Bickell, Arthur Swenson, James Schofield

Readings—"The Usual Way" and "Soap"

Solo—"Oh, Lucky Jim"

Miss Mabel Marshall

Address—"The Radiance of Your Eyes"

"Daddy" Miss Mary Caldwell

Address Rev. Charles P. MacGregor

Solo—"Gray Butterfly"

Miss Marshall

The entertainment committee, James C. Soutar, chairman, had charge and deserves great credit for the success of the Ladies' night.

Notice

Pythians at Free Church

"The Altar of Friendship" as exemplified by the Knights of Pythias, was the subject of the address of Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock, Sunday morning, when Garfield Lodge, K. of P. and Garfield Temple, Pythian Sisters, attended divine services at the Free church.

The Knights and Sisters assembled at the lodge rooms at ten o'clock and marched to the church, John Buchan C. C. leading the Knights and Mrs. Elmer Davis, chief, the Sisters. About seventy five were present and occupied seats in the front of the auditorium.

Rev. Mr. Wheelock preached from the text, "Greater Love Hath No Man Than This That He Lay Down His Life for His Friend."

Whist Party

Last Saturday night, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Red Spring road was the scene of a very pleasant whist party in honor of their daughter, Edith.

Miss Henderson, who boards in Boston, was invited to spend the week-end with her friend, Miss Irene Valentine, and in the evening they went together to the Henderson home where her friends were waiting to greet her.

She was greatly surprised but not enough so to lessen her ability to play whist for she won the ladies' prize. The gentlemen's prize went to Edward Duffly. Miss Henrietta McCoubrie and Robert Randolph won the consolation prizes.

Those present were the Misses Gladys Ralph, Henrietta McCoubrie, Louise Tuttle, Irene Valentine, Marjorie Morrill, Sarah Hilton, Edith Henderson, Mrs. Alexander Anderson, the Messrs. Eldred Larkin, George Napier, Robert Randolph, Edward Duffly, Edward Dupont and Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson and family.

Dainty refreshments were served and before the evening closed Miss Henderson was presented with a gold wrist watch, the gift of her father and mother.

The Marionettes

"It's a good cause," remarked an Andoverian, as he paid for four tickets to the Marionettes.

"Yes indeed," returned the ticket seller, "but it's a good show, too!" "I'll buy a ticket," said another friend, "but can I see from that level floor of the Town Hall?"

The question was quite to the point, but can be answered in a decided affirmative. The puppet stage is raised several feet above the regular stage, upon which it is erected. Even at a considerable distance back in an ordinary hall, one seems to be looking slightly upward at the lighted background and quaint figures. The feet of the puppets are always easily seen.

The Marionettes will be in Andover next Thursday, May 20th in the town hall, at quarter of four in the afternoon and half-past seven in the evening. Each performance is about an hour and a half in length.

May 10, 1920, at 35 Essex street, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Lynn.

May 13, 1920, a daughter, Charlotte, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Donald of Weston.

Deaths

May 7, 1920, Sarah Elizabeth, wife of Ira O. Gray, aged 63 years, 11 months and 28 days.

May 8, 1920, Clark (a.k.a.) aged 78 years, 6 months and 21 days.

Pecuniary Problems

"Are you going to take any boarders this summer?"

"No," replied Farmer Cornstossel.

TIME

The stars give the astronomer accurate time. Man has transferred the accuracy of the stars to the watch. For the Aristocrat, the man of keen discrimination, the wide awake up and coming man of affairs, for these men who realize the value of time, an accurate high grade watch is a necessity. A Hamilton watch, "The Railroad Timekeeper of America", is a watch of real value.
